La M1801 di alcuni degli elementi del sistema Édouard non è lineare, ma leggermente curva, come se la sinuosità, che per sua natura richiama il concetto di abbraccio e di accoglienza, volesse rappresentare un invito all'incontro e alla condivisione. between its thickness and the intersections of straight lines and curves, Tulip is a 360-degree swivel armchair with remarkably flexible use. The polished brushed aluminium supporting disc reflects part of the frame, thus emphasising the item's roundness. Two cuts carved into the backrest and a soft seat cushion make the chair cosy and comfortable.

Named after a coral formation, the new modular seating system by Antonio Citterio, is a refined expression of a balanced aesthetic form and a decisive contemporary style that is also extremely elegant. The system is built on three basic platforms - 190 cm and 240 cm, both with 90 cm depth, and 130 cm with 140 cm depth - that are complemented by armrest and backrest elements to form various types of seats: sofas, dormeuses, terminal corner elements, single or modular elements with chaise longue and ottoman. The frames have light, slender lines and are applied on high die-cast supports with metal profile emphasising the line between the structure and upholstery.

ITA
M2003, il nuovo sistema di sedute componibili di Antonio Citterio, il cui nome rimanda alle omonime formazioni coralline, è l'espressione ricercata di una forma estetica equilibrata e di uno stile contemporaneo deciso, allo stesso tempo estremamente elegante. Punto di partenza del sistema sono tre piattaforme di base - cm 190 e 240 con profondità cm 90, cm 130 con profondità cm 140 - che si completano con elementi bracciolo e schienale a formare tipologie diverse: divani a pozzetto, dormeuse, terminali angolari, elementi singoli oppure componibili con elementi chaise longue e pouf. Le strutture presentano linee leggere e sottili e sono applicate su sostegni alti in pressofusione con profili metallici a sottolineare la linea tra le strutture stesse e l'imbottitura.
